Number one is my favorite close circle

My friends Lucy, Nika, Aja and Lena.

I think they knows much of me. They makes me every time happy and they can help me with my problems.

Lusy knows everything, bcs she is my friend number one. I know her only for 3 years, but she is my soulmate.

Nika is too my very good friend, I know her only for five months, but she is my "mommy" she cares about me and my life.

Aja is my friend since my childhood, but she have volleyball four time at week, so she don't gave me much attention. But I still love her.

I known Lena since my first class, but we are friends since fifth class.

Number two is my close circle

There is seven people in this circle. My mom, dad, brother, friends Bara, Justa and my grandmas. Mom helps me with boys, friends and other problems, but she can't help me with school. every time she said : „I left school a hundred years ago.``. Dad is my superdad, bcs he helps me with math and physics and he takes a care of me and i'm his first and favorite child. Bara and Justa are my favorite peoples in my class. They makes me laugh and they can makes me happy and smile. I love my grandmas and they love me too, bcs i'm first grandchild and i'm nice to them, bcs they cooking and baking for me, so I'm grateful for them.

Number three is my normal circle

I have my camp friends in this circle, other family members and other friends. I see my friends from camp only once a year, but I still like them. I have best memories on camp thanks them. With other family members I don't have much contact, so I see them once a time. Other friends don't give me much attention and I've got nothing to say to them, so when I sometimes meet them it's a good and sufficient.

Number five is my last circle

In my last circle I have classmates and people who I know, but I don't talk to them to much. I say hello and they say something back, but nothing special. These people are not very special and important to me, but sometimes I like them and sometimes I want kill them .
